

ADVOCACY SERVICE FOR PARENTS WITH A LEARNING DISABILITY

WHAT IS THE PROJECT?

A person-centered advocacy service for parents with a learning disability whose child/ren are at Early Help stage. They may require early intervention and additional support at meetings to enhance their skills and empower them in their parenting role.

WHAT IS AN ADVOCATE?

A person who is independent from Social Services or other statutory agencies who will work in partnership with a parent to give them a stronger voice in saying what they want, representing their interests and help them to explore other options or choices.
